

Greater Philadelphia NATS Meeting Minutes, January 11, 2015

The planning committee of the Greater Philadelphia NATS planning committee met from 3-5pm at the home of Kim Robson. Also in attendance were Nancy Jantsch, Marcus DeLoach, Angie Feliciano, and Kate Mallon-Day.

Report from secretary/treasurer:

Minutes from the last meeting were approved.

PNC Balance - $400.00 –A list of the members paid through National Office was shared.

Bills due: Audition Workshop facility rental – Settlement Music School - $200;
Website Domain fees $81.85. These bills were approved for immediate payment.

Auditions Workshop, February 28, 4-7pm, discussion –

Since the website is not ready to accept payments, a decision was made to change payments to checks sent to Nancy's address, 233 South 6th St., #2301, Philadelphia, PA 19106, or payments can be made at the door. Kim will write another note to send to the membership with a clarification of the payment information.

Volunteers will be needed to help with the auditions 3-7:30 pm.

Kate will be in charge of set-up: chairs, table, water, lights, etc.

Nancy and Kim: at the registration table to collect funds, greet and direct participants.

Kate's husband may record the event, which will be available on the web site.

Angie will be the timer.

Marcus will MC, and host Val.

Kate will host Robert.

We will reach out to a group of members who have shown an interest in helping in the past. A volunteer is needed to greet participants at the door, and direct them to the registration desk. Also, members to help set up, tear down, and runners would be helpful.

Kim will purchase water, tissues, cough-drops, and name tags, and will make a registration sheet with instructions, directions, and bios to be handed out at registration.

Nancy will have payment checks ready for the Master teachers, and will mail thank you cards afterward.

Website – The NATS National site still doesn't have our website link. Angie and Kim will follow up. Other edits are still in process. Angie will make it so that Marcus can help with these edits.

Next meeting: Sunday, March 22, 2pm at the home of Nancy Jantsch (233 South 6th St., #2301, Philadelphia, PA 19106).

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Jantsch, Acting Secretary/Treasurer Greater Philadelphia NATS
